Cromwell Racecourse Reserve - a great community asset

By Jan Hawkins COMMUNITY

At a time when Cromwell has been confirmed for two new harness racing days, the Central Lakes Equestrian Club (CLEC) which manages the Racecourse Reserve is frustrated with council delays in their efforts to enhance the facilities.

The 2022-23 harness racing calendar is adding Friday February 24 and Sunday February 26, 2023 as Cromwell racing days, hosted by the Wyndham Racing Club. This is at a time when they are consolidating race courses throughout the country.

"This is a growing region which is especially popular during the summer and the grass track meetings there (Cromwell) are always great events which attract big fields and a good turnover," says Harness Racing New Zealand General Manager Racing Catherine McDonald.

Thoroughbred racing will also continue to feature at the racecourse, with Central Otago Racing Club holding its annual meeting on Friday, 25 November, 2022, while Otago Racing Club will host its now famous race meeting at Cromwell on Sunday, 27 November 2022.

The racecourse reserve has historic significance for the district with the traditional running of the Cromwell gallops race meeting for the past 156 years - the oldest course in the country to hold continuous meetings. CLEC, which has managed the reserve since 1999, was formed as a result of the then

Roundabouts working for winter

Editorial Supplied COMMUNITY

The new Cromwell roundabout on SH8B/SH6 being built by Fulton Hogan for Waka Kotahi NZ Transport Agency, will be open for traffic from Thursday evening, by 5 pm, 2 June.

A temporary seal has been laid with line markings in recent days to ensure the roundabout is safe to use over the winter, says Brendon French, Principal Project Manager for Waka Kotahi. The Barry Ave/ SH8 developer-funded roundabout opened earlier in May for traffic and people have quickly got comfortable using it.

Contractor Fulton Hogan has been busy on the two roundabouts since February this year, with sunny, warm weather contributing to good progress, says Mr French.

The Waka Kotahi roundabout, estimated at around $5 million to design and build, is funded through the Government's NZ Upgrade safety programme. The aim is to make this increasingly busy intersection safer for all Cromwell residents, visitors and daily commuters, says Mr French.

"We know local people will be happy to see the end of the local road detours around these two sites for a few months at least," says Mr French.

"Even though we will put the detours in place again for spring when we work on the final top sealings, people will see the end in sight at that point."

Work over winter includes building footpaths and getting ready for planting and landscaping. Construction of the developer funded cycling and pedestrian underpass near the Barry Ave/ Wooing Tree roundabout will begin in Spring.

An official opening is planned for before Christmas 2022.

Cromwell Jockey Club being dissolved. It is a voluntary organisation, established primarily to promote and foster equestrian activity within Cromwell, wider Central Otago and the Queenstown Lakes District. The management document allows for a diverse range of recreational activities - not just horse racing. It leases the reserve from the CODC for a peppercorn rent.

The Club hosts many activities on the 91.34 hectare reserve, and has made considerable improvements to the facilities, since its inaugural meeting on 22 October 1999. All funds generated are returned for improvements, including replacement buildings.

It is keen to continue plans to update the facilities, expand its resources and make this wonderful resource a place for the whole community to enjoy.

While keeping its primary focus on equestrian activity, it also hosts first-class Pony Club facilities, schools' cross country events, field days, Christian Camps and Faith Festivals, cavalcades and hoe-downs, vintage car rallies, horse grazing, sheep grazing, army and police exercises and meetings, music festivals and fetes - it has even been a base for Lord of the Rings horses.

In March 2019, the Club presented a submission to the Cromwell Community Board with a request for financial support for a major irrigation project. The plan is to harness an existing bore. Currently there is only enough irrigation for about 6 hectares. The Board adopted the CODC's recommendation to defer any decision until a Business Plan was produced. This sowed the seed for the Club to develop a comprehensive 45-page, Business Plan 2020-2030, dated July 2020, outlining the history, existing and planned uses, development and budgets.

President of the COEC, Wayne Dixon, says that they are still waiting for a decision on Council support for the irrigation project. The current irrigation system is only adequate for the racetrack area - it cannot supply water for horse grazing, and prevents many developments like shelter belts being established. Without Council support, the Club cannot go ahead with fundraising for the project.

"We've been working with the Council and Community Board for the last three years trying to get support, and it is very difficult to get any traction. None of the Cromwell representative on the District Council appear willing to advocate on our behalf and, apart from Bob Scott, our local Community Board is not providing any strong support to what we are trying to achieve here. This is disappointing when the reserve is such a great asset for Cromwell and the wider district. We just want to get on with it!"

Swingers Club and Brothel coming to Bannockburn - it's a play!

By Jan Hawkins EVENT

The comedy, Pat Goldsack's Swingers Club and Brothel, is scheduled for Coronation Hall, Bannockburn on 25 June.

This comedy has been reviewed as 'a pure joy to watch' (Art Murmurs; 'impossible not to love' (Echoes from the Wings) and 'utterly phenomenal ... hilarious' (Theatreview).

It is a one-woman show, written and presented by Kate Boyle. Kate is one of New Zealand's most noted Shakespearean Actors, with 13 Elizabethan productions performed over the last eight years.

She is directed by award-winning comedian Alexander Sparrow, as seen on TVNZ's Breakfast, TV3's The Project and Prime's Back Benches.

The play tells the story of 87-year-old Patricia Goldsack, known to her friends and lovers as Pat. She has toured New Zealand for the last sic decades with her touring swingers club and brothel. She is keen on making a dollar for her old age, and meeting lots of new and naked friends, so she explores how close two degrees really is, and whether we can make that separation even smaller.

The show features anecdotes from Pat's chequered past, audience interaction, and all kinds of tips and tricks, delivered with a sharp grandmotherly wit and accomplished improvisational skills.

Fresh from multi-award nominated performances, this is one old woman you don't want to miss.

Awards include Nest Female Comedian, 2021 Comedy Hub Awards; Winner Best Comedy, 2018 Palmy Fringe Festival; Nominated Best Comedy, 2018 Nelson Fringe Festival; Nominated Best Solo Show, 2018 Wellington Comedy Awards.

Brought here by Arts on Tour NZ and ArtsCentral, the production is suitable for Mature Audiences only.

When: 7.30 pm, Saturday, 25 June
Venue: Coronation Hall, Bannockburn

MAYOR TIM

No matter what your political persuasion, I don't think anyone would disagree we have an accommodation problem in Central Otago, and in particular in Cromwell.

If you lean toward your left wing, you will see a market that many of our people, especially young people are priced out of. If you fly more on your right, you are probably worried about finding or maintaining staff. Either way, there is a problem.

The question is; what can be done about it?

Actually, there's two questions, and they need to be answered by you through to the 5th of June in a very quick survey being run by CODC right now.

You'll be asked:

1. Do you agree to Council supporting the development of affordable housing in Central Otago?
2. Do you agree with Council contributing land worth the equivalent of $8m ($4m each from the Cromwell and Vincent wards) to the Central Otago Affordable Housing Trust to establish a secure homes model in this region? (Note this would equate to a loss of return on developing the land of $16m - $8m worth of land value and $8m worth of net profit)?

The survey can be found on the CODC website and it gives links to further information to inform your answers. There's also an opportunity to add any other thoughts you may have.

This is a really crucial survey that will guide your councillors on the path to take in relation to affordable housing in Central Otago. Please take the little bit of time that is needed to have your voice heard on this crucial subject for the future of our district.

Ruth Shaw - The Bookseller at the End of the World

You may have seen Ruth Shaw on television, or read about her in one of a number of newspapers, including The Guardian.

Everyone is charmed by the story of an incredible woman whose memoir, The Bookseller at the End of the World, is a literary weave of stories of the characters who visit her wee bookshops in Manapouri, musings about her favourite books, and bittersweet satires from her full and varied life.

You are invited to an evening of enjoyment, entertainment and laughter in which Ruth will share her stories of high adventure, trauma, incredible sadness, times of desperation and chaos, as well as amazing highs.

Throughout her lifetime, she has always had a love of books. Ruth tried to retire, but instead she runs three bookshops.

This is much more than just a bookseller memoir. Ruth has led one of those extraordinary lives. She has sailed extensively through the Pacific and the South China Sea, being held up by pirates, worked in Sydney's Kings Cross with drug addicts and prostitutes, campaigned on numerous environmental issues, and owned and operated the yacht 'Breaksea Girl' with her husband, Lance.

Underlining all Ruth's wanderings and adventures are some very deep losses and long-held pain. Balancing that out is her beautiful love story with Lance, and her delightful sense of humour.

Shaun Bythell, bookseller and author of The Diary of a Bookseller describes the book as "an extraordinary story... illegal gambling, pirates and numerous personal tragedies, all punctuated by warm stories from her bookshops and an ultimately resolved love story. It makes my life look pretty dull".

And your inner self will not be forgotten. Your $15 ticket is a bargain, as it includes a beverage or two with nibbles.

The event is at St Andrew's Hall, Blyth Street Cromwell commencing at 7:30pm on Wednesday 15 June.

Environment and heritage the winners in latest Central Lakes Trust Grants Round

By Jan Hawkins COMMUNITY

A record grants budget of $12 million sees two Central Otago heritage buildings receive large grants in the current CLT round.

Teviot Museum receive $80,000 towards the purchase of Roxburgh's Masonic Lodge on the town's main street. The lodge is to be repurposed into a much needed larger and more prominent museum for the district, to add to the current early settler museum.

Teviot District Museum secretary, Barbara Fraser says the chairman, John Rowley and the committee were delighted to learn of the news.

"The museum's current location is tucked away on Abbotsford Street. The small stone cottage is full to overflowing, and has no running water or bathroom facilities. Expanding the current site would be double the cost of purchasing the Freemason's lodge to repurpose. It is also in a more prominent location, which will attract more visitors," she says. "We are just working through agreements with the Freemasons now, and once we have all the funding lined up, the purchase will go through. Thanks to CLT we are a good way there."

The other big grant went to our local Otago Goldfields Heritage Trust, who received $62,500 towards the purchase of the old Methodist Church, a registered heritage building in Cromwell.

The Heritage Trust's offices are based out of the building, as well as the local movie theatre.

"Securing the purchase of the building means we can look to preserve and restore it for our future generations and the community's use," says Odette Hopgood Bride, Heritage Trust treasurer.

"We have now secured 50% of the funding required for purchase. While the church is protected by the district plan and The Heritage

New Zealand Pouhere Taonga Act 2014 we have applied to Heritage New Zealand for the church to become a category listed building," she says.

The purchase of 4,000 more predator traps is that much closer with funding going to the Southern Lakes Sanctuary Trusts predator trapping programme.

Chairperson Greg Lind says, "The funding allows SLS and our partners the predator trapping expansion to operate at a landscape scale - the goal of the project."

CLT Chief Executive Susan Finlay says,

"The Trust supports projects and organisations that preserve and promote the physical and cultural heritage of our region and that protect and enhance the environment in which we live.

This funding round highlights the work our community is doing to preserve our heritage and environment."

Cromwell Rotary Annual Book Sale

Photo supplied

Editorial Supplied EVENT

The 2022 Rotary Book Sale supports Cromwell Plunket

A team of Rotarians has been very busy sorting through and cataloguing thousands of books that have once again been generously donated by the Cromwell and districts community. We thank you very much for this support to enable the vital service of Plunket to continue its valuable work with babies and new mums in our community.

The Plunket volunteer base is very light as the core volunteers are usually parents of young children themselves whom much of their time and energy is being consumed parenting small children.

The local 2021-2022 Fundraising Plan took a significant hit due to COVID so Cromwell Rotary is delighted to be able to support this valuable service in our community.

This will enable Plunket to continue to fund our local community services such as: MumSpace – our Maternal Wellbeing Support Group, Giggles & Wrigglers – our Under 2s Playgroup, various parenting education, and support sessions as well as some funding for updating the much loved and well utilized Cromwell Plunket Rooms.

We have a great selection of reading material for you this year; rare treasures, special interest collections, masses of current fiction and a fantastic assortment of children's books, which are now safely stored in sturdy banana boxes waiting to be transported to the venue ready for opening day. The sale will again provide all ages with many happy hours of reading at bargain prices.

The non-fiction books are all carefully catalogued into topics arranged loosely in alphabetical order to make browsing easier. The fiction books are grouped according to price and in some cases we have genre groups.

Once again there will be many good quality jigsaws, current and special interest magazines as well as a great selection of CD's, DVD's, LP's, and sheet music.

There is sure to be something for everyone, please bring your own bags to load up with books or support our fundraising initiative by purchasing a light cotton reusable Rotary bag.

See you in the Spring!

Here at Cromwell and District News, we are proud to be a team of community-minded enthusiasts creating a truly local, independent paper.

With a strong focus on Cromwell and surrounding districts, we feature current events, support local charities and bring you and, our region's visitors, ideas for activities, things to do, where to go, and more.

Our passion is to bring you news 'from our locals, for our locals'.

The past two years have been hard for local businesses, and when it is hard for our local businesses, it is hard for us too.

We have made a determined effort to promote and feature them, and to encourage locals to support locals, but we understand that their advertising budgets have had to be adjusted.

With this in mind along with staff shortages we have therefore decided to revamp and reflect over winter's quieter months, and come back in the Spring with a new look, new graphic designers and new ideas. Our last issue will be 8th June.

We are, of course, open for business at Quantum Print, and will be offering you our usual high-quality, creative printing services.

From flyers to posters, labels, websites and promotional material Quantum Print is here to serve the Central Otago area.

We are dedicated to helping your business grow

Lot 47 - Topping Education Scholarship Fund

Editorial Supplied COMMUNITY

Les and Vicky Topping moved to Cromwell in 1976. Les worked on the Clyde Dam Project for the next 10 years developing his engineering and project management skills. These skills were used on the Cromwell Rotary and Lions Clubs house build fundraising project, Lot 47. Les was able to organise the many businesses that supported the project including Myer Cruden, C Hughes &

Associates, Hire King, Telfers Electrical, NES Central, Steven White Electrical and Otago Electrical Services

A lucky recipient of the business communities hard work for Lot 47 is Lachie Crowle. Lachie's father helped with the electrical work on Lot 47 so Doreen Evans was excited to see an application from his son. Lachie is studying First Year Health Science at Otago University with the aim of completing a Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery over the next 6 years. Lachie aspires to be an orthopaedic surgeon specialising in sports medicine. Lachie has play representative hockey for Central Otago, Otago and Southern since he was 7 resulting in being selected in the NZ under 18 hockey camp.

Vicky Topping was the St John Station Manager for Cromwell in the days when volunteers manned the station. In 2007 Vicky and Alan Markby fought for a permanent paramedic to be employed for day duty with a volunteer. Nights and weekends were still covered by volunteers. In 2009 a second paid paramedic was employed resulting in cover for seven days of the week.

Vicky said today Cromwell relies on trained volunteers to cover night shifts. However, such volunteers are in short supply resulting in many shifts not being covered. Doreen Evans was surprised to learn there was not a 24/7 St John service in Cromwell. After the community provided St John with funding for their new building Doreen thought St John would have ensured there was 24/7 service to support the community that has supported St John.

Remember there is a fund available to assist anyone to attend First Aid Courses. Vicky has organised Essential First Aid Courses (8 hours) to be held on 27 and 28 June, 25 and 26 July as well as First Aid Revalidation course (6 hours) on 4 July. Please contact Vicky on vickytopping@xtra.co.nz or 021 328 991. Alternatively, call Doreen Evans on 027 277 0972 or email doreen.evans@southernpeaklaw.co.nz.
